CONDEMNATION PROCEEDINGS.

Mercantile Trust Company Gives Out Some of the Details-Settles Vexed Terminal Questions.

The purchase by the Rock Island road of sixteen city blocks between Lather and Adelaide avenues, on the North Side, east of O'Fallon Park and Bellefontaine Cemetery, was exclusively announced by The Republic several days ago. Yesterday tha deal was confirmed by the Mercantile Trust Condemnation proceedings upon four more blocks in the neighborhood will be instituted to-morrow.

The blocks sold aggregate about 20,000 feet, and Lorenzo El Anderson, vice presideat of the Mercantile, stated that the price poid would averge to a foot, making the total cost about $50,000. He also said that, while the first papers have not passed, nor the details been fully worked named, nor the defails been fully worked out, contracts have been eighed which resters the transaction virtually closed.

The distress part of the sixtsen blocks was bought from the Popes, O Failons and Connected Life insurance Company.

The property is close to a mile in length and is about woo feet wide, lying between the Wabash and the Terminal Association reachs. The four loss needed, and which may be condemned through court proceedings, belong to the Leschen Rope Company, being the Kennett triats. Julia Cullen and Charles P. Mercantile Trust Company.

The auction of lots in Alien's addition, conducted by the Mercantile Trust Company yesterday afternoon, was successful. The lots were nearly all sold. While the praces ruled rather low, there was considerable spirited building for some of the choice locations. The Russell avenue lots were disposed of in short order, and each of the other lots taken up in turn. On a few of the lots no bids were accepted. The crowl was large, considering the hot weather, and stuck manfully to the auctioneer's van throughout the afternoon. L. E. Anderson, second vice president of the company, advised Auctioneer Sutton to dispose of the lots as quickly as possible and there was no deiny at any point. Assistant Secretary Moberly was busy on the ground in charge of the office force. Following were the sales:

couple who lived near Thirteenin and Monree or Thirteenin and Clinton streets, and who conducted a small bakery. Later Lanza was taken away from this couple by her father, but he was compelled to restore her to them by legal process.

Mrs. Agnew says she has never heard of her sister since that cotsode. She does not know the name of the couple that adopted Laura, but knows that the adoption papers were made out by a Justice of the Peace on North Market street, near Breadway. Her father died in the City Hospital on March 2, 1896. She is extremely anxious to find her sister, and expresses a hepe that every young woman who was adopted in St. Laura about twenty years ago, and who is in ignorance of her parentage, will communicate of her parentage, will communicate

Repairs Hair

Nature always tries to repair damaged hair. Sometimes she succeeds, very often she doesn't. She needs a little help—Ayer's Hair Vigor. It repairs the hair, touches it up, gives it new life, brings back the old dark color, and makes it soft and glossy. Cures dandruff, too.

"I used only one bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor and it completely stopped my hair from falling out." - Mrs. C. Leasenfeld. New York City.
